Builders Mutual Names Huckaby & Associates to the Status of Champions Club

Raleigh, N.C. – Builders Mutual Insurance Company is pleased to announce that out of more than 600 agencies, Huckaby & Associates qualified to join Champions Club, the select group representing the top ten percent of agencies contracted with the company.

“Huckaby & Associates has shown consistent growth and profitability during the last three years. Builders Mutual is pleased to include them in our 2014 group of Champions Club agencies. We will continue to work closely with Huckaby & Associates to provide service and support,” stated Brad Mook, Assistant Vice President of Business Development with Builders Mutual Insurance Company.

Huckaby & Associates has been contracted with Builders Mutual since 2001. The agency focuses on writing insurance for customers in the construction industry and maintains a close working relationship with Builders Mutual.

Headquartered in Raleigh, Builders Mutual is one of the Southeast’s leading writers of commercial insurance for the construction industry and is rated A (“Excellent”) by A.M. Best Company. Since its inception, Builders Mutual has broadened its territory beyond North Carolina to include the District of Columbia, Georgia, Maryland, Mississippi, South Carolina, Tennessee, Virginia and Florida. The company provides coverage to more than 18,000 policyholders through more than 4,000 sales agents and employs more than 200 staff at its Raleigh headquarters.
